

A musical Ingathering of Our Exiles.....

"...and I will carry you on wings of eagles and bring you to me" Exodus 19:4

About the Artists

The captivating mother and daughter singing duo, Dvora and Carmi Cohen, have enchanted Jewish audiences nationally with their vibrant performances of Jewish music. With their family they have participated in the Hassidic Festival in Tzfat, Israel and have appeared on a recording entitled "MUSIC TREASURES OF THE JEWISH PEOPLE."

Having lived in Israel for six years, Dvora and Carmi absorbed the authentic sounds and rhythms of the new immigrants coming to Israel. During this period, Carmi's interest as a child, gravitated to the oriental music of her classmates so that today her performances authentically express this music. Dvora, grew up in the singing Deutsch family and has been performing Yiddish and Hebrew music since early childhood. It is this background that has given Dvora and Carmi the breadth of repertoire which enabled them to undertake this recording.

In preparing the recording, the artists' primary desire was to authentically preserve the music our people brought back from the countries of their exile, to their homeland - Israel.
